St. James's, February 24.

THE following Addreſs of the Council of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, having been tranſmitted by Francis Fauquier, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor of the ſaid Colony, to the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The dutiful Addreſs of the Council of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Virginia at this Time convened in General Aſſembly, preſume to approach the Throne on an Event very pleaſing and intereſting to us, and to all your People reſiding in America.

Allow us, Royal Sir, who are Inhabitants in this diſtant Part of your Realm, humbly to acknowledge the multiplied Inſtances of your Paternal Tenderneſs and Regard to us; and in particular to expreſs our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's unbounded Goodneſs, and diſintereſted Kindneſs of your Parliament, to repeal the late American Stamp-Act.

We rejoice at this Time to declare, that His Majeſty's Adminiſtration hath been conducted with Mercy and Clemency; and that you have condeſcended to hear the Complaints of your Subjects, and to uſe your Royal Hand to relieve them.

As Duty and Affection to your Majeſty are fixed and unalterable Principles in us, we feel the Impreſſions of them ſo ſtrong and lively in our Breaſts, that we cannot omit to lay hold of this Opportunity to renew our moſt ſincere Profeſſions of our conſtant and inviolable Fidelity: And we do, with Zeal and Firmneſs never to be ſhaken, promiſe your Majeſty, that we will at all Times exert ourſelves in the Defence of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, at the Riſque of our Lives and Fortunes.

We ſhall no longer preſume to interrupt your Majeſty's Attention to the Public Welfare, than by adding our moſt cordial Congratulations on the happy Addition to your Royal Family, and our fervent Wiſhes for its future Augmentation. Permit us, Gracious Sir, to expreſs the Raptures we feel in enjoying the bright extended Scene of Felicities; and to glory and exult in participating of the Bleſſings provided for Poſterity.

By Deſire and in Behalf of the Council,
John Blair, Preſident.

The following Addreſs of the Synod aſſembled at New York has been preſented to the King by the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WHILE your Majeſty's American Subjects in general are rejoicing in the late ſignal Manifeſtation of your Paternal Care of theſe Colonies, we the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbyterian Churches of New York, New Jerſey, Penſilvania, lower Counties upon Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, now convened in a Synod at New York, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere Profeſſions of Loyalty and Gratitude, and to lay at your Feet a freſh Acknowledgment of our unalterable Fidelity and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

We adore the Goodneſs of Almighty God for the Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and review, with the higheſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction, the Bleſſings the whole Nation has received from the Kings of your Illuſtrious Houſe; and it is our conſtant and ardent Prayer, that the Britiſh Sceptre may ever be ſwayed by a Prince of that Family, who have been the Friends of Liberty, and to which we are bound by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Love and Intereſt.

But while we recognize our innumerable Obligations to your Majeſty for your unwearied Attention to the Britiſh Empire in general, and that Paternal Protection of theſe diſtant Parts of it, which in the late War defended us againſt a powerful and barbarous Enemy, permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to teſtify our profoundeſt Gratitude for your Royal Tenderneſs and Condeſcenſion, your benevolent and efficacious Interpoſition in the Repeal of the late Statute, by which ſo many Millions of your faithful Subjects, both at Home and Abroad, were alarmed and diſtreſſed. And as we look with Horror upon the Miſeries we have eſcaped, we bleſs God for that Clemency which diſſipated the threatening Cloud, and has engraved your Name on our Hearts, as our Father, our Deliverer, and our Benefactor.

In theſe Overflowings of Love and Joy, we cannot help expreſſing our Veneration for both Houſes of Parliament, whoſe Wiſdom, Juſtice, Moderation, and true Greatneſs of Spirit, are ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed, in rejecting every Meaſure that might plunge us into Ruin, and caſting an Eye of Pity upon our Diſtreſſes, and a Veil of Love over the Tumults and Irregularities in ſome of the Provinces.

It is with the higheſt Joy we ſee the Minds of your People already ſoftening down to their former Contentment, and that Flame of Affection to their Mother Country re-inkindled, ſo neceſſary to the Eſtabliſhment of Harmony between all the Parts of your extenſive Dominions. It ſhall be the Buſineſs of our Lives to pray for your Majeſty's Proſperity; and teach your numerous merous Subjects under our Care, Love to God, and Affection to the beſt of Kings, Submiſſion to Magiſtrates, Obedience to the Laws, and the Neceſſity, Honor, and Happineſs of our Dependance upon Great-Britain.

Signed in the Name, in the Preſence, and by the Order of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, by

At New York, June 2, 1766. Elihu Spencer, Moderator.

Copenhagen, January 31. The Prince of Brunſwick Bevern arrived here a few Days ſince from his Government of Rendſburg; as did Count Schmettau, Commander in Chief of the Forces in Norway, from thence.

Count Welſberg, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Court of Vienna, arrived here on the 28th, and has already made his Viſits to the Foreign Miniſters.

His Excellency M. Deſmercieres, Deputy in the College of Commerce, and one of the Directors of the Bank, has juſt reſigned the former of thoſe Employments.

Turin, February 11. Early laſt Saturday Morning, we had here a very ſenſible Shock of on Earthquake, which laſted about three Seconds. It has been felt more ſeverely at Genoa, where it has done a little Damage to ſome of the Houſes.

Hamburgh, February 13. The Population of this City has not increaſed this Year, as it appears, that 3400 Perſons have died, and that only 2983 Children have been born; 1079 Couple have been married.

Hague, February 17. The Marquis d'Havrincour, Ambaſſador from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to the States-General, died here on Sunday laſt in the Afternoon, of the Small-Pox, ſincerely regretted by all Ranks of People for his good Qualities: The Ambaſſadreſs, never having had that Diſtemper, had been obliged to leave the Houſe at the Requeſt of her Huſband, and will probably return to France with her two Sons.

The Annual Faſt will be obſerved Tomorrow throughout theſe Provinces.

War-Office, February 24, 1767.

IT is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that all Officers, whether taken from the Half-Pay or otherwiſe, who have been appointed to any Regiments on the Britiſh Eſtabliſhment, but on Stations out of Great Britain, and whoſe Commiſſions are dated on or before the 1ſt Day of October, 1766, ſhall ſet out, within one Month from the Date hereof, to join the Corps to which they belong, except they have already obtained the King's Leave of Abſence, or unleſs they ſhall now obtain it through the Application of their Colonels; which Application is not to be made except on very cogent Reaſons. And all Officers belonging to the above-mentioned Regiments who have now Leave of Abſence from their reſpective ſuperior Officer commanding where the Regiment is ſtationed, (if no particular Time is ſpecified for ſuch Leave) are to apply through their Colonels, that the Time may be aſcertained by the King, and before the Expiration of the Time ſo limited, they are to join their Corps. It being His Majeſty's firm Reſolution to ſupercede any Officer who ſhall diſobey theſe his Orders.

All future Leaves of Abſence are to be exactly regulated according to His Majeſty's Orders, bearing Date the 11th Day of February, 1767. By his Majeſty's Command,

BARRINGTON.

BEAUME DE VIE.

By His Majeſty's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, granted to the Patentees for the ſole Making and Vending the ſame in Great-Britain and the Colonies.

THE Virtues of this Medicine are manifeſt beyond Contradiction in all Diſorders of the Stomach and Bowels; Gout, Gravel, Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Agues, and all Intermittents. In Female Complaints it has never failed to relieve, and it is the greateſt Reſtorative in the World for impaired and ſhattered Conſtitutions. Its high antiſeptic Virtues render it ſpecifically valuable as a Preſervative againſt all Infectious Diſtempers; and as it is the moſt powerful Antiſcorbatic, no Medicine extant deſerves ſo much to be regarded for the Service of His Majeſty's Navy. For a more ample Account of its Uſes the Public is referred to a Pamphlet of Caſes, to be had of the Venders of this Medicine, which (as well as the Marc or Reſiduum for external Uſe) is ſold in Bottles at 3s. each by W. Nicoll, Bookſeller, in St. Paul's Church-Yard, T. Becket in the Strand, T. Durham at Charing Croſs, Richardſon and Co. at the Royal Exchange, R. Davis in Piccadilly, and W. Flexney, Holborn.

Good Allowance to Country Dealers, Captains of Ships, and thoſe diſpoſed to give it away. This Medicine may be had in all the Towns in England, Scotland, Ireland, and the Colonies.

ALL Perſons indebted to the Eſtate of John Pinches, late of Brompton near Chatham in the County of Kent, Shopkeeper, deceaſed, are deſired forthwith to pay their reſpective Debts to Mr. Richard Belſon, of Bread-Street Hill; and all Perſons having any Demands thereupon are alſo requeſted immediately to ſend an Account thereof to the ſaid Mr. Belſon.

This Day is publiſhed,

Elegantly engraved on Six Sheets of large Elephant Paper, and dedicated by Permiſſion to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, &c. &c.

A General Chart of St. George's Channel, containing a particular Deſcription of the Bearings of each Point of Land by the Common Compaſs, as well as the true Meridian Line, and their Diſtance from each other; with the Depth of Water, Setting and Flowing of the Tides. Alſo the Bays, anchoring Places, Harbours, Rocks, Banks, Shoals, &c. &c. from Lundy Iſland in the Britiſh Channel, on the Engliſh Coaſt; Tramore Bay and Waterford, on the Coaſt of Ireland, to the Southward and Weſtward; Mull of Cantyr, on the Coaſt of Scotland, and Fairhead—Rathlin, and Ballycaſtle, on the Coaſt of Ireland, to the Northward; and the Harbours of Liverpool, Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Glaſgow, to the Eaſtward. Corrected from actual Surveys, experienced Pilots, &c. and the principal Harbours and Roads in England, Scotland, Wales, and Ireland, laid down on a large Scale. With a Book of printed Directions.

By Capt. ROBERT WILLIAMSON.

This Work, before engraved, was ſhewn to and approved by the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, and ſeveral Admirals, Captains, and Commanders in the Royal Navy and Merchants Service, which has encouraged the Author to publiſh it at his own Expence, no correct Chart of that Channel having been hitherto publiſhed, which has occaſioned the Loſs of many Ships and Lives every Year for the laſt Twenty Years paſt.

Publiſhed for the Author, at Baker's Coffee-houſe in Exchange Alley, and at the Salopian Coffee-houſe near the Admiralty; and ſold by T. Jefferys, Geographer to His Majeſty, at Charing-Croſs, R. Sayer in Fleet-Street, Carington Bowles in St. Paul's Church-yard, H. Parker in Cornhill, and A. Dury in Duke's Court St. Martin's-Lane, Map and Printſellers.—E.
